1. The Open University Library will make available the reading material for those participating in the scheme.
2. The participating institutions and libraries will make the reading material available for the Open University Library.
3. The selection of the reading material in both institutions will be done by the librarians.
4. The reading material borrowed can be kept maximum of two months.
5. In the libraries outside Nashik City, reading material will be provided by the post. In such a case, the requesting library must bear the postage cost of obtaining and returning the material.
6. Libraries in Nashik City should send and return the reading materials by sending their representative directly.
7. A maximum of 10 books will be exchanged at a time.
8. In case of damage or loss etc. of the reading material, a payment of three times the original price of the reading material will have to be paid to the concerned institution or a new copy of the book should be deposited to the lending library.

Regarding inter-library exchange on the above condition Y.C.M.O.U. The library and B.Y.K. College of Commerce library have an agreement and it is being signed between the College of Commerce, Nashik.
